THE JACKRABBIT - 1939

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS
OF BOWNE HIGH SCHOOL
BOWNE — TEXAS

FOREWORD

The purpose of the publication of this volume of the "Jackrabbit" is to record the activities of the past year at dear old Bowie High so that in the years to come we may relive in memory the many pleasant days spent in and around our school.

May it forever keep aflame the friendships and associations acquired during this happy school year.

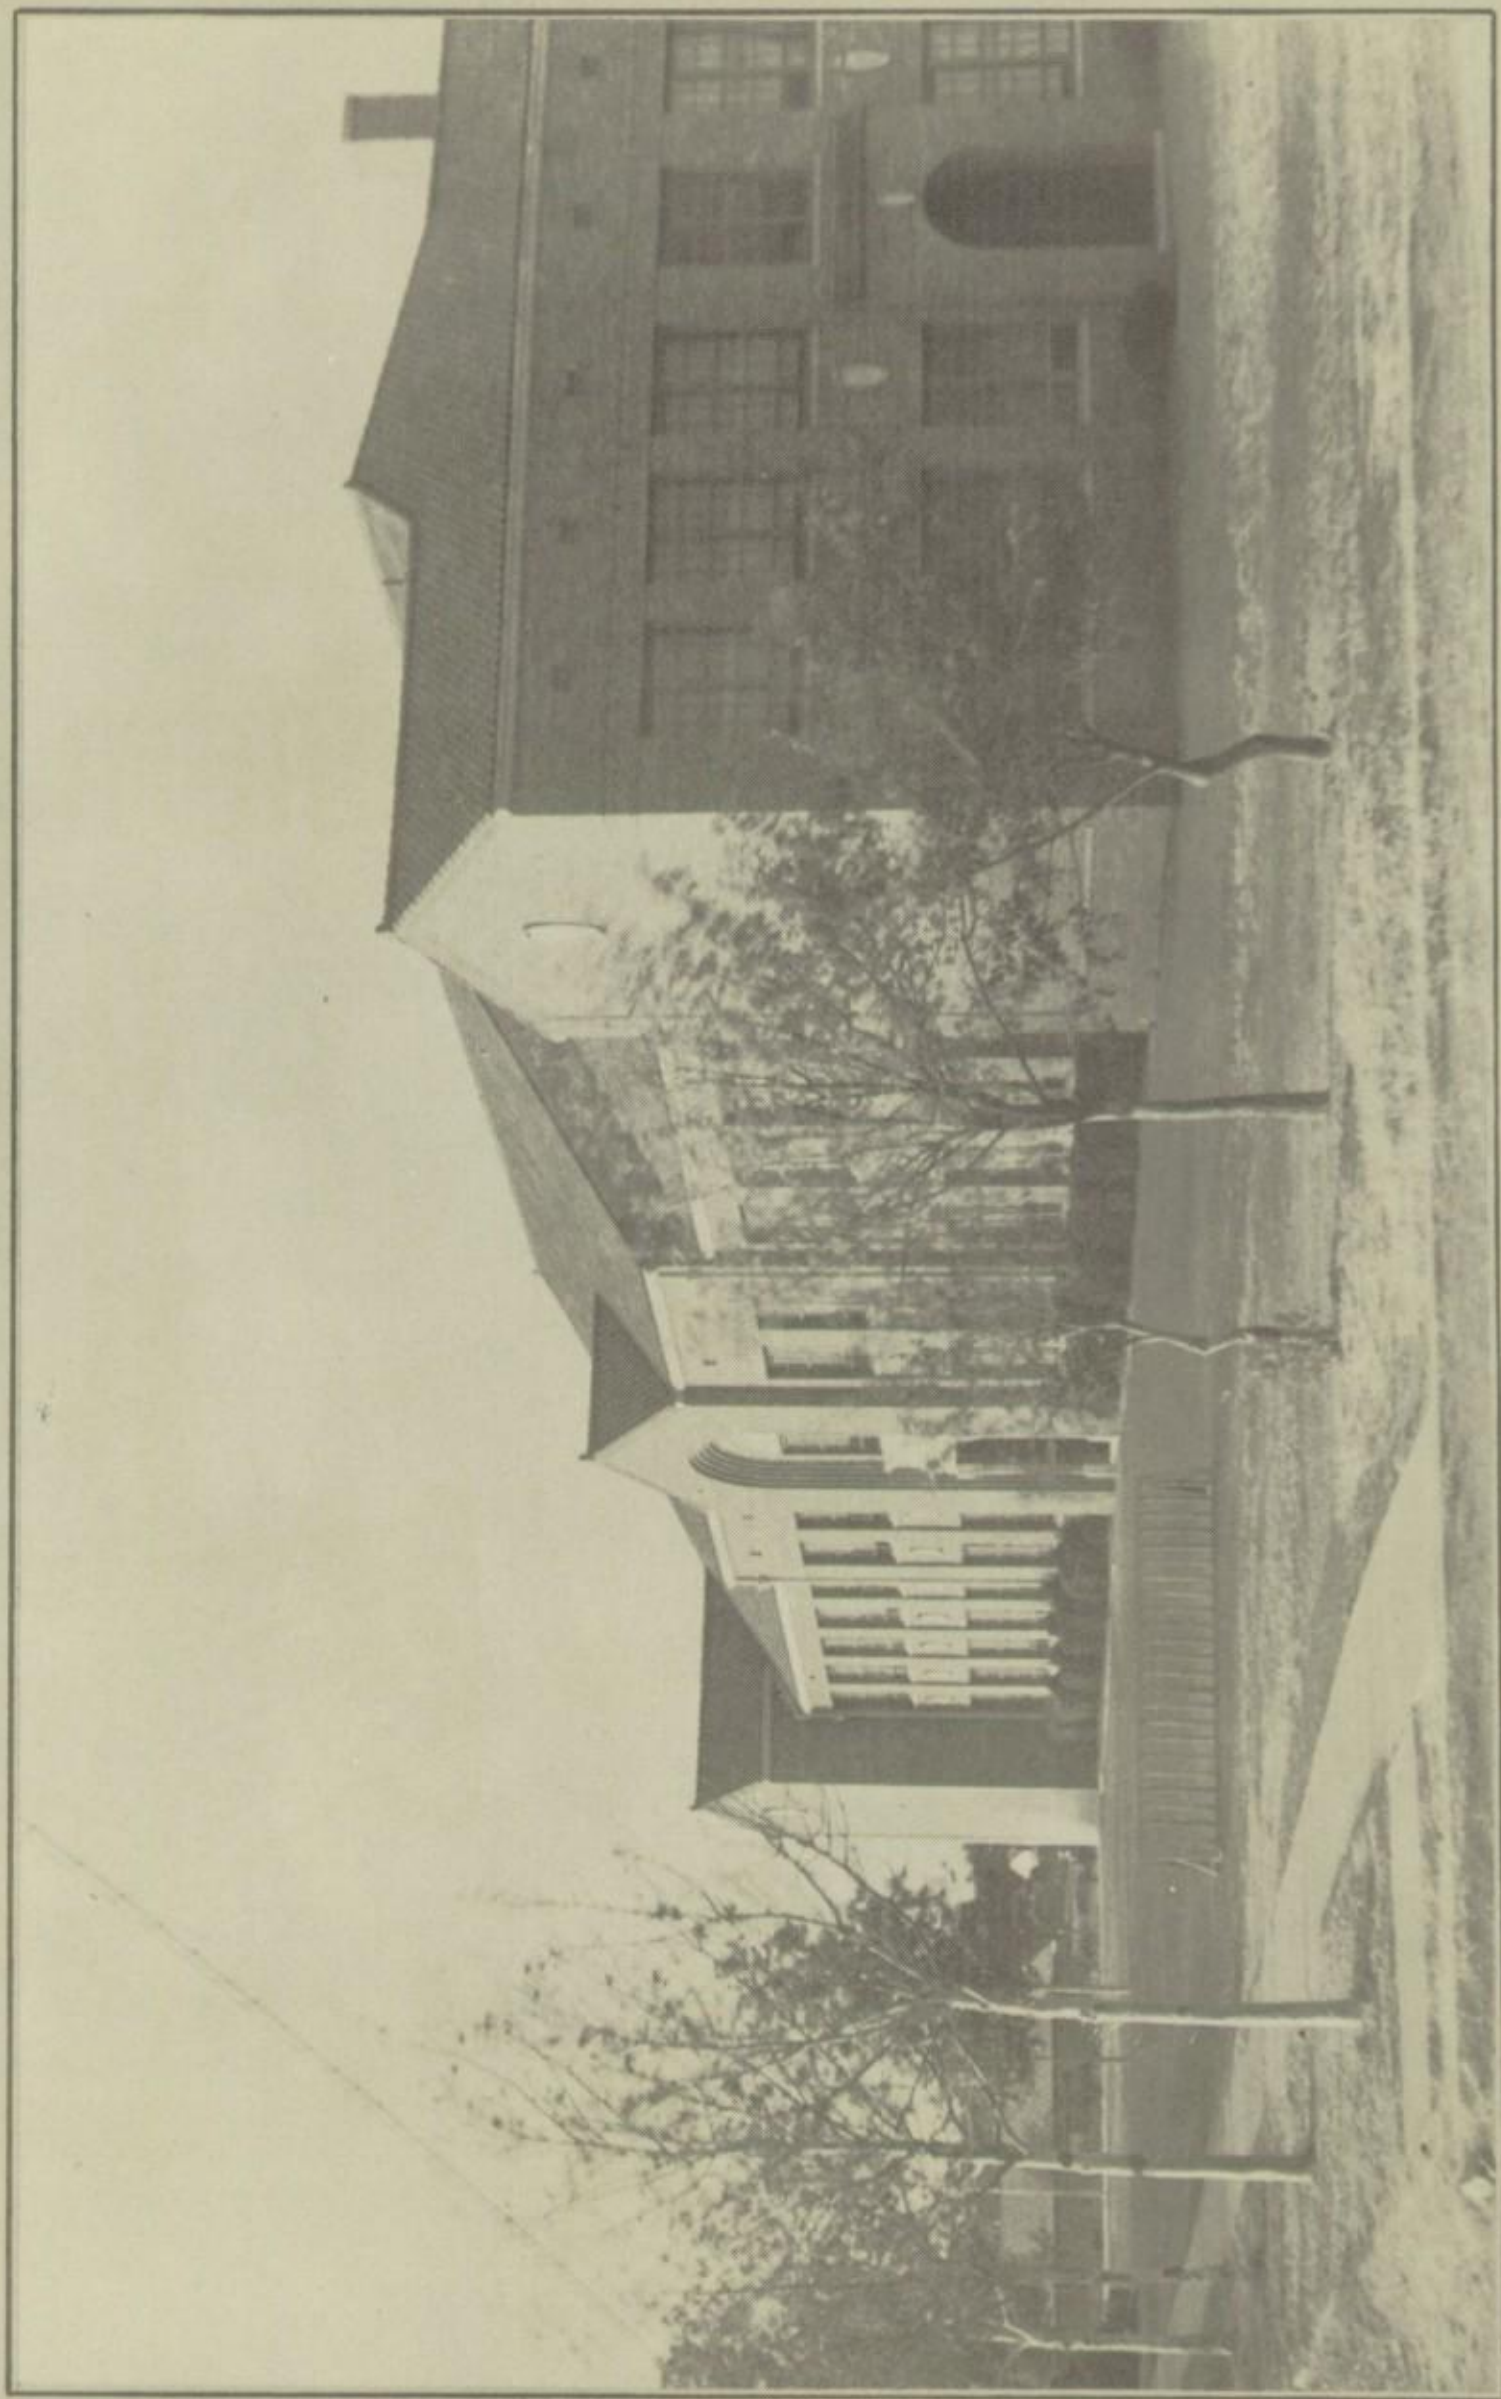

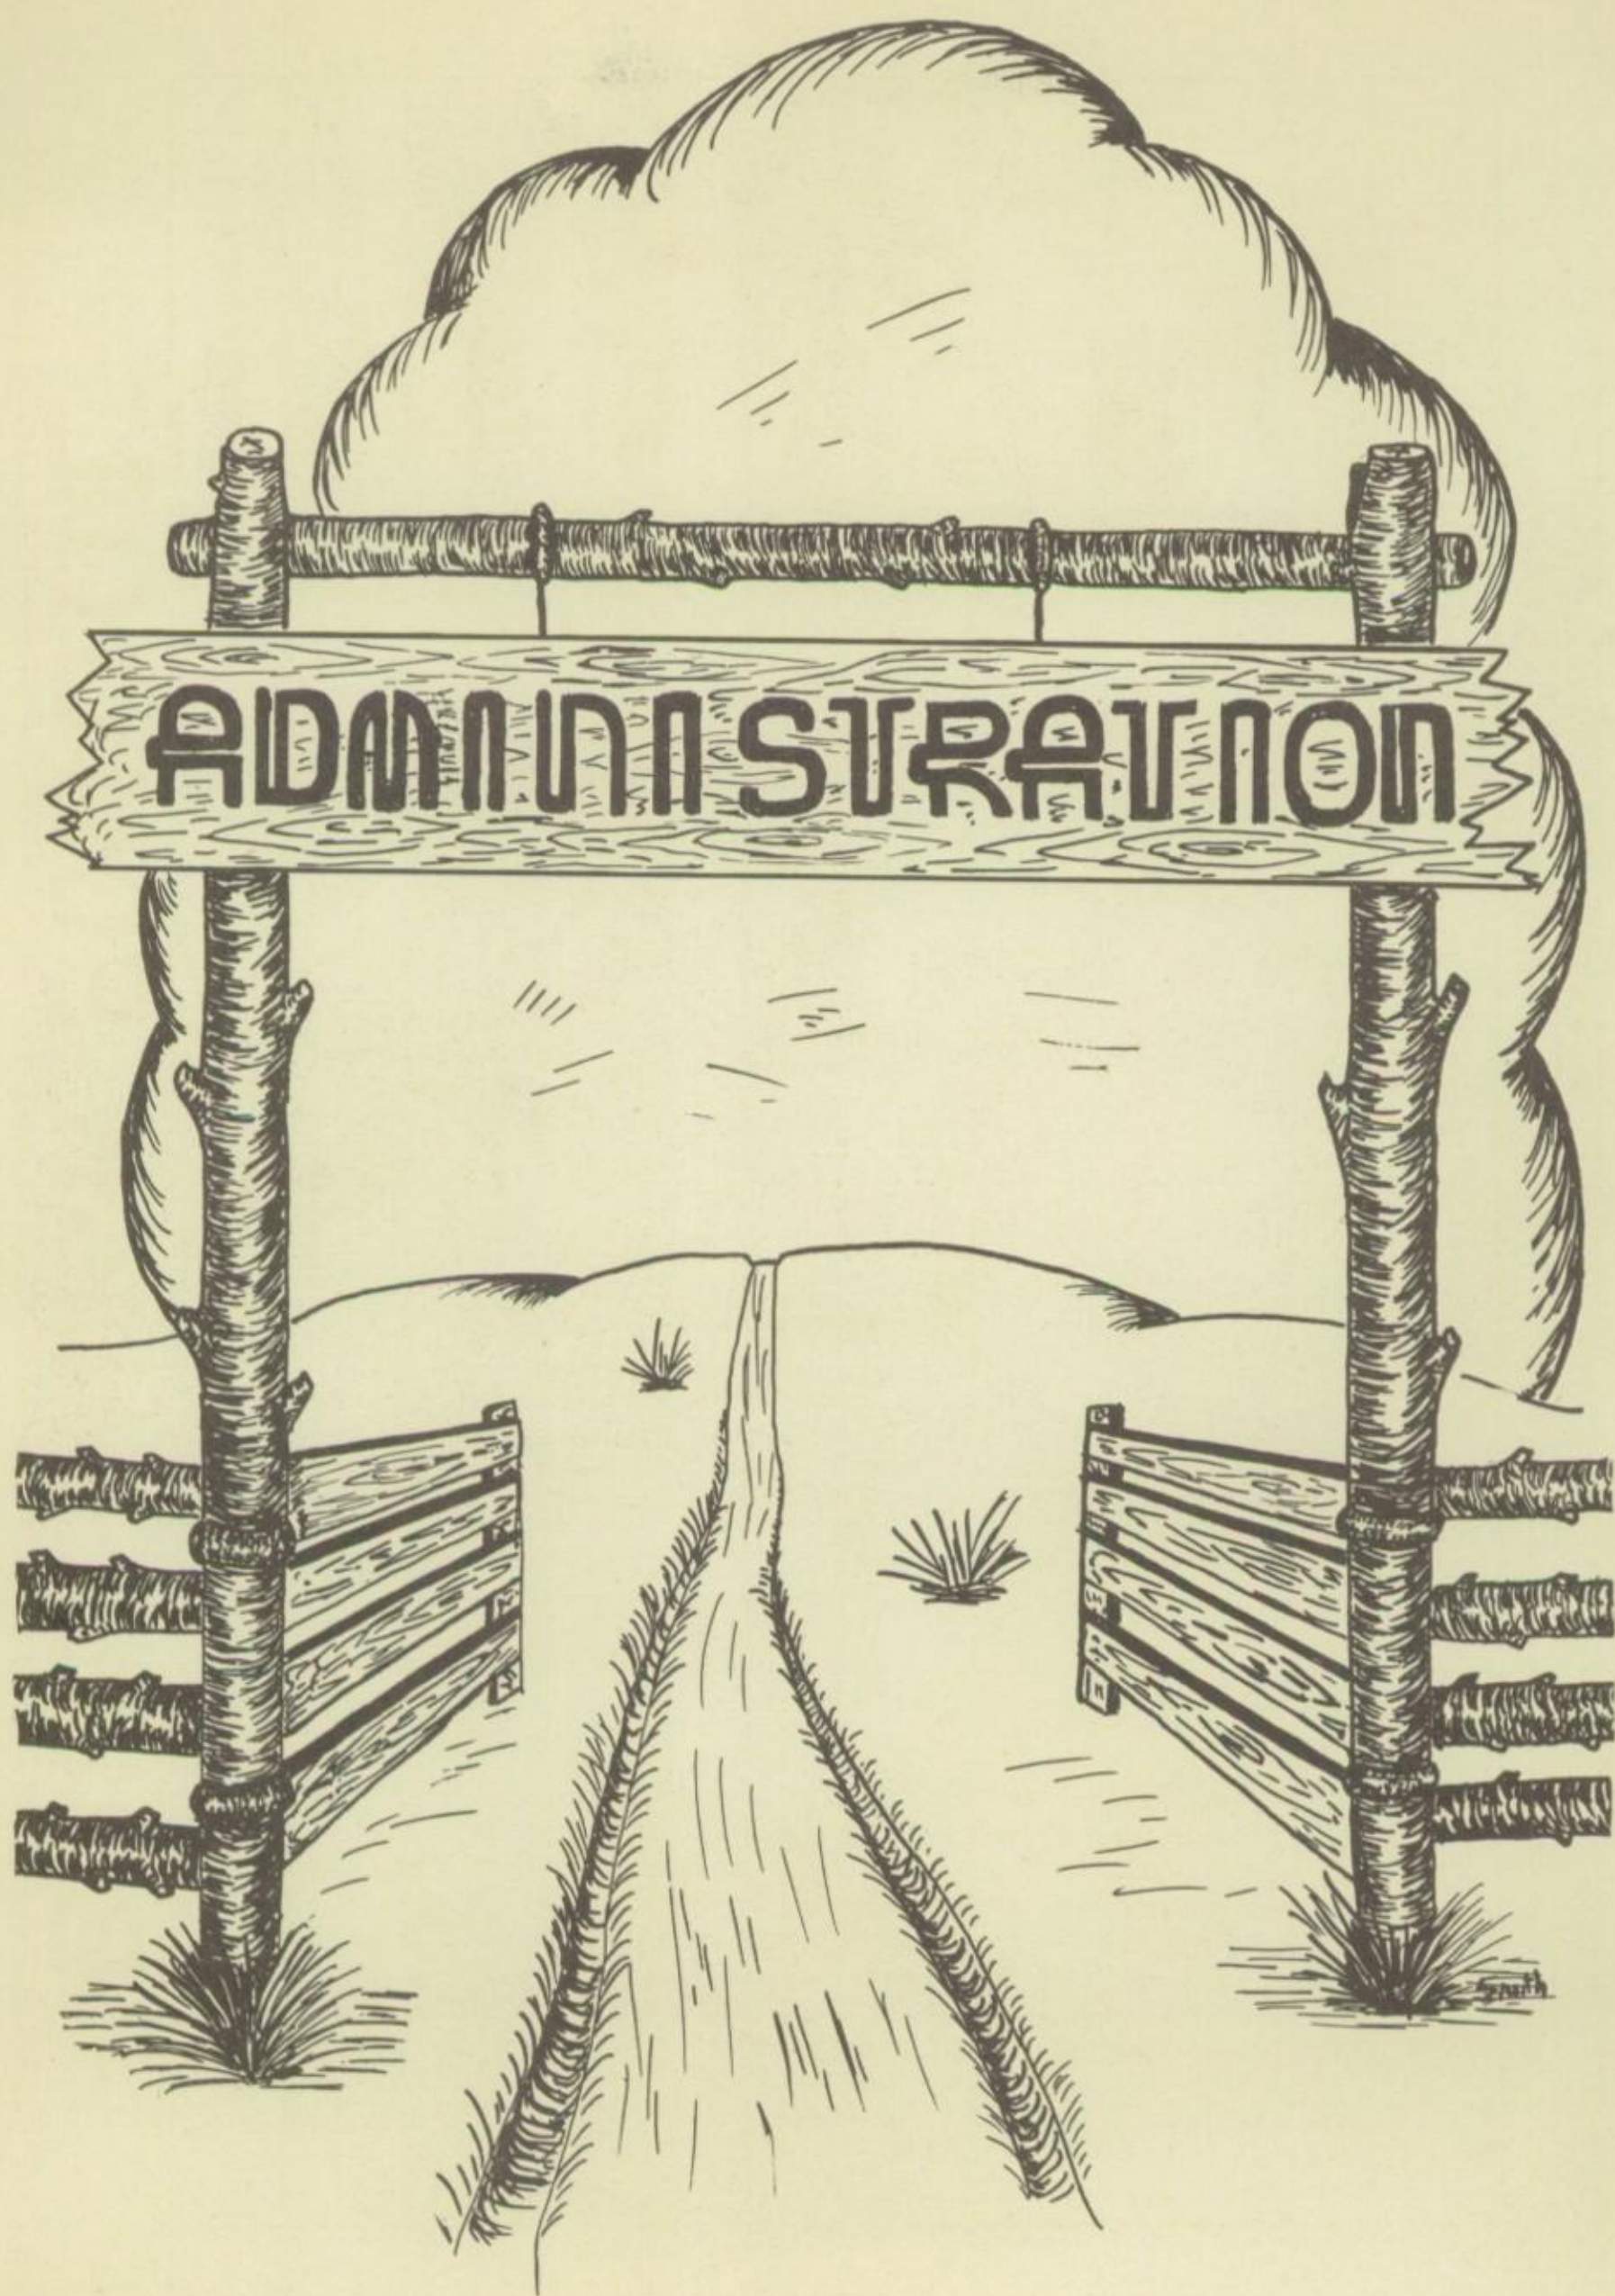

Dedication

Due to her loyal co-operation and untiring efforts in our behalf and because of her faithfulness and undying labors toward the publication of this and other volumes of our annual we, the Seniors, of Bowie High School, dedicate this volume of the "Jackrabbit" to our ever-diligent sponsor and instructor-

MISS DICKERMAN

BOWEN HIGH SCHOOL

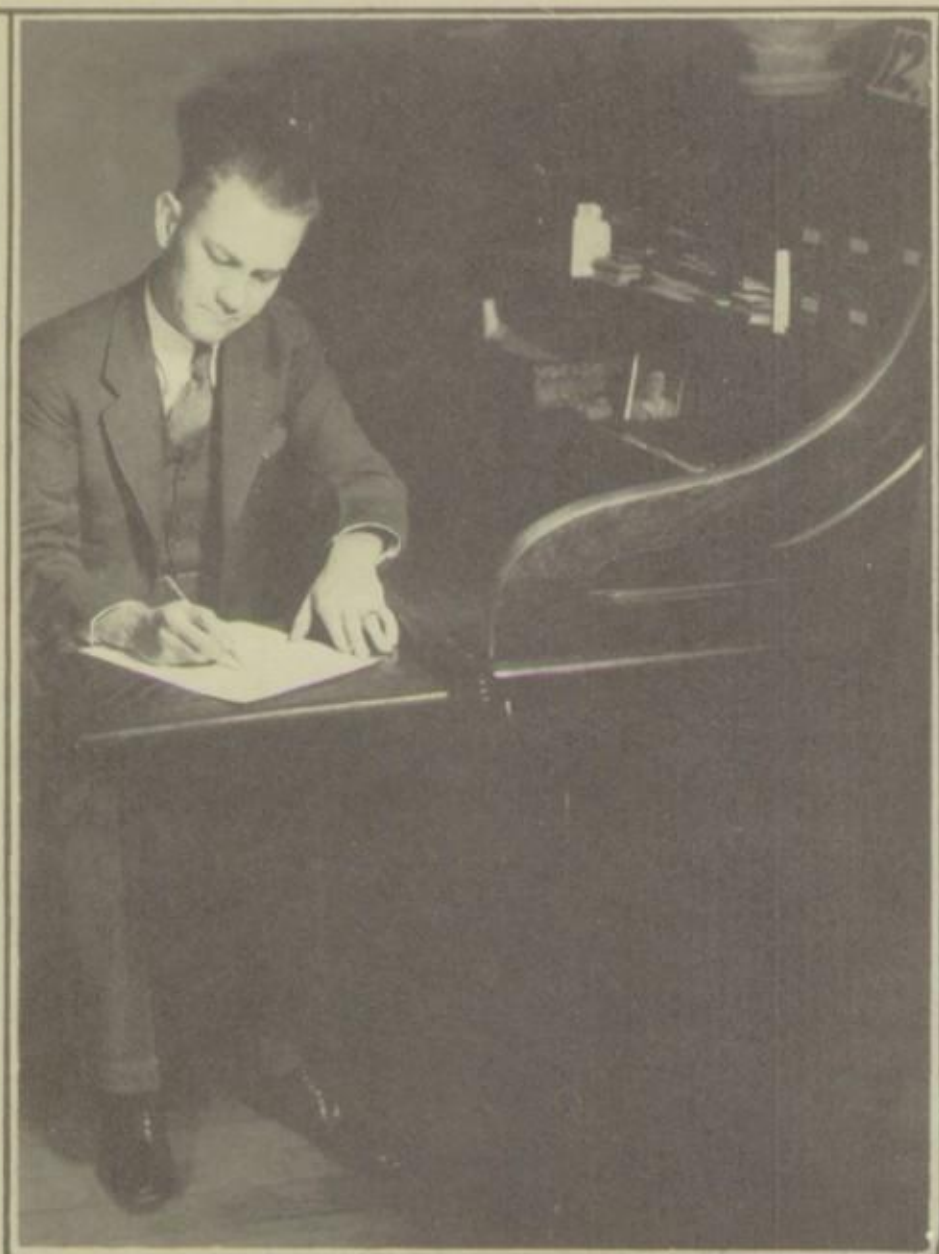

BOARD of EDUCATION

T.H. Yarbrough; D.T. Wilson; Dr. C.J. Dodsworth, Secretary; G. (Doc) Jackson, President; Ike Parks; M. Posey, Vice-President; and Herman Conrad.

The Board of Education has shown its untiring efforts in many ways this year. The student body wishes to take this means of thanking them for their improvements in and around our school. As a result of their endeavors several improvements stand as evidence. A few of these are: a new grandstand on the football field, new football equipment, the sodding of the football field, the box-office and gate at the entrance, the new parking lot near the field, and the building of a garage apartment to house the school busses and serve as a home for the janitor.

You Bowie High School students are highly intelligent persons. Intelligent minds are demanding the truth daily. Your thinking is becoming clarified by making rediscoveries that have been found by others who have gone before you. You are in school because you are willing to pay the price in study and in labor sufficient to master the known field of the worker's interest. Along with these fine qualities, you have exhibited as a student body one of the finest co-operative spirits with which it has ever been my pleasure to become associated. You have been fine in the manner in which you have received me as your Superintendent. I wish to state that I am as fond of you as you have seemingly been of me and my year's work has been a most pleasant one.

Yours very sincerely

Walter B. Alexander

There's a gang from the high school at Morrow's Coffee Shop again.

"Hello, Miss Moore, what are you doing in here?"

"Why," says Miss Moore, "Didn't you know all of the teachers come to Morrow's when they want fried chicken?"

"Yes," adds Louise Washburn, "Connie and all of us come to Morrow's because they welcome high school students, and are known for their service and good food at inexpensive prices."

A Family Secret

Medico: "Ask the accident victim what his name is, so we can notify his family."
Nurse: (a few minutes later): "He says his family knows his name."

Returned Present

Bill: "Well, Art, your sister has given herself to me for a Christmas present. What do you think of that?"
Art: "That's what she done for her boyfriend last year, an' he give her back 'fore Easter. I bet you'll do the same."

Eloquent J. M.

Jane (at one end of sofa to J. M. at other end): "Elmer, do you think my eyes are beautiful?"
Bashful J. M.: "Uh huh!"
Jane: "And do you think my hair is the prettiest you've ever seen?"
J. M.: "Gee whiz! I'll say."
Jane: "Do you think I have a perfect figure?"
J. M.: "Gosh! You bet!"
Jane: "And do you think my lips
are like rubies?"
J. M.: "Oh boy! I'll say they are."
Jane: "Are my teeth like pearls?"
J. M.: "Uh huh!"
Jane: "Oh, J. M., you say the cutest things."

Broadened Out

A fly was walking with her daughter over the bald head of Coach Schneider.
"How things change, my dear,"
she said. "When I was your age
this was only a footpath."

"Your lips are twin roses,"
He told Miss Bowers;
"Come bid me goodnight,
And say it with flowers."

Following 'Em

Father: "Son, why are you so far behind in your studies?"
Son: "So that I may pursue them, father."

First

Where's your brother, Johnnie?
Johnnie: "Aw, he's in the house playing a duet. I finished my part first."

Priest: "Do you take this woman
for butter or for wurst?"
Groom: "Oh liver alone, I never sausage nerve."

Angels

Caller: "Your children play so quietly."
Mother: "Excuse me a moment, please."

Miss Chancellor: "Richard, I hope you are prepared to answer that question I put to you yesterday. Now, what is 'dew'?" Richard: "I asked Pa, and he said the rent."

Smokey: "I'm only a poor Senior trying to get ahead."
Connie: "You sure need one."
